

Q. Did you see Mrs. Mills there?

A. No.

Q. How well did you know Mrs. Mills?

A. Just passing. Knew her to see her.

Q. Did you see her and Mr. Hall out together?

A. Never.

Q. In your walks on the streets, ever see her about?

A. Never.

Q. I am told, Willie, that you do quite some charity work?

A. If this can be done unofficially I would be much obliged. I know of a certain family but I don't want to mention names.

Q. Let me say that in all those things, different questions asked you, we must know in making out investigation to have them to clear them up.

A. But there is one thing. They are a poor family and know absolutely nothing, and I would like them kept out of it. If this could be kept out, simply unofficial, it would help me in the questions.

Q. I understand you told Mr. Beekman that if anything was vital and necessary, you would tell it.

A. But these two people have no connection. I let them have a little money. They are very decent people.

Q. Then tell me who those people are?

A. Langyal.

Q. So now?

A. The woman is a Hungarian and the girl Hungarian-American.

Q. And the husband?

A. Is dead.

Q. And it is just mother and daughter?
